

1. What do you mean by coming together Federalism?

Ans - Independent states coming together on their own to form a bigger unit is called coming together federalism.

2. What do you mean by holding together federalism?

Ans - large countries decides to divide power between constitutional units, this is called holding together federalism.

3. Define Union list.

Ans - Union list has subject of national importance.

Union alone can make laws.

Subjects that comes under this list are - Defence, banking, currency, foreign affairs and communication.

4. Define State list.

Ans - State lists have subjects of local importance.

State govt. alone can make laws.

Ex - Police, trade commerce, agriculture, irrigation etc.

5. Define Concurrent list.

Ans - Concurrent list has subjects of common interest both of state and centre. Both the centre and state can make laws.

Ex - Education, forest, trade union, marriage adoption etc.

6. Define Residuary list.

Ans - Residuary list contains subjects that do not comes under other lists. Union government has to power to legislate residuary list.

Ex - Computer softwares etc.