

River paragraph

A river is a natural water body flowing freely on the land towards another larger water body. A river gets more water from other sources like pond, rain and another larger water body. A river gets more water from other sources like pond, rain and another river as flows downstream. The place closest to the source of origination of the river is class 'upper course'.

"let's her go back on the labboard!"

"let her go back on the labboard"

"let her go back on the labboard!"

"let her go back on the labboard!"

"let her go back on the labboard!"

"let her go back on the labboard!"

"let her go back on the labboard!"

"let her go back on the labboard!"

"let her go back on the labboard!"

"let her go back on the labboard!"

"let her go back on the labboard!"