

Homework

1) Define the term election?

ans) An election is a formal group decision making process. by which a population chooses an individual or multiple individual to hold public offices.

2) What make elections democratic?

ans) The minimum conditions of a democratic elections are as follows -

- * Everyone should be allowed to vote
- * Elections must be held regularly after every few years.
- * The candidate prepared by the people should be elected.