

Early on winter mornings we see drops of water ~~on~~ on parked cars and plants. Why?

Ans: During the night when the hot air comes into contact with the cold surface, water vapor present in it condenses on the cold surface in the form of droplets or dew. ~~Yes~~ Therefore in ~~at~~ early morning we see ~~a~~ dew on parked cars and plants.