

Why is it important to save water?

Ans: It is important to save water because:

i) Water plays a very important role for all living beings. With the absence of water no one can survive.

ii) Water accounts the $\frac{3}{4}$ th part of Earth. But the amount of fresh water is very less so, it's very important not to waste clean water.