Discipline is the key to success

-By prajashree

The key to get success is discipline. we should always maintain a discipline in our life. A discipline life is always a systematic life. A discipline child always obey their parents.

If we maintain discipline we can get success in every case. If there is no discipline in life then the life is equal to the life of animal. A discipline child is always time conscious like:- taking breakfast in time, taking bath in time, and study in time, taking lunch in time, to respect and obey parents advice.

So, we should always try to be discipline child and a discipline child can easily tackle and face all the difficulties in life.
