

Hw

Q- Early on winter morning we see drops of water on parked cars and plants. Why?

ans- Early on winter morning we see droops of water on parked cars and plants because the water vapour present in the atmosphere condenses as the droplets of water on the ground and other surfaces.