Subject :- Miserable condition of drought victims in Rajasthan.

Sir:

~~Sir~~

Everyone knows how badly some areas in Rajasthan have been hit by the recent drought. The water scarcity has given rise to many problems. The people living there are facing lots of troubles. There is severe shortage of food, water, milk and fodder for animals.

These drought ~~to~~ victims need immediate help in a big way. The government administration is doing very little; the people should also come forward and donate liberally to help these victims. I appeal to ~~the~~ people and corporates to come forward and help these victims.

The government should also work on the long-term solutions by creating forest covers around the drought-hit areas.

Thanking you,
Yours Truly,
Rekha Chauhan
