Worksheet

Q2-1) Our Constitution lays down an impressive list of fundamental rights.

- ii) Some of the important fundamental rights are right to freedom of religion, right to equality and right to freedom of speech.
- iii) Fundamental rights can be enforced in a court of law.
- iv) This means that no one can be discriminated against caste, race, gender, religion, economic status etc.

Q3

I think that it is important for all people to be equal because it is written in our constitution that all people have equal rights and there must be equality in gender, caste, race, culture, religion etc. If there is no equality then there will be many problems like gender inequality, caste inequality, social inequality etc.
