We use the pronoun we in place of the name of more than one person including ourselves.

H.W. 8/11/21

Examples:

Ravi and I are brothers. We go to the same school. Seema and I are sisters. We are from Hyderabad.

• We use the pronoun they in place of the name of more than one person. They is used to talk about others.

Examples:

Tony and Tina have a pet dog. They play with their dog. Amit and Neha live near school. They walk to school every day.

- 3. Read the sentences. Choose the correct pronouns and fill in the blanks.
 - (a) Kunal and I are best friends. (They/We) go to school together.
 - (b) Susan and Manmeet are healthy. They (They/We) eat apples every day.
 - (c) Priya and Sonu are in the park. They (They/We) are playing football.
 - (d) The children are in the library. (They/We) are reading books.
 - (e) Amit and I are neighbours. (They/We) help each other.

Recap

Pronouns are words that are used in place of naming words. For example, Ravi is my cousin. He is from Hyderabad.