

The new girl faced many problems in the school. Some students named Navin, Ali and two of their friends from class VII cornered the new girl after school to ask about your you-know-what. They took the girl's bag and wouldn't give it back. Then they threw it into the thicket by the side of the road and the girl had to scramble down into the mountainside to get it.