

3. Fill in the blanks with the correct modal given in brackets based on true statements.

a) I might (may/might) win the singing competition at my school.

b) My teacher may (could/may) assign us homework today.

c) I might (may/might) help my classmates with their homework.

d) I could (might/could) visit a new city this year.

e) Our class may (may/might) win the football match this year.

f) It is only 10 p.m., so we could (could/may) drive uphill.

4. Frame a sentence to seek permission for each of the actions given below and a sentence ce to give or deny permission with Proper justification. Use appropriate modals in your sentences. ~~one has to~~

- a) To bake a cake :-
A. Can I bake a cake in this oven?
B. I'm afraid you can't. The oven needs repair.
- b) To dance on the table :-
A. Can I dance on the table?
B. No you can't because one of its leg is broken.
- c) To help you with homework.
A. Can I help you with homework?
B. Yes you can because its difficult.
- d) To buy a painting.
A. May I buy a painting?
B. No you can't its expensive.
- e) To go to the super market.
A. Can I go to the super market?
B. No you can't. Its raining heavily outside.
- f) To take you for a movie.
A. May I take you for a movie?
B. Yes I will go because I am bored in home.
- g) To prepare dinner :- A. Can I prepare dinner tonight?
B. No you can't. I have already ordered it.
- h) To go to a party : A. Can I go to a party?
B. I'm suffering from fever so I can't.