Dear Diary,

OMG! I got to fulfilled one of my bucket list recently. I know you are curious to know that. I went to one of the famous hill station of India, Darjeeling with my family. The queen of hills is an apt description while talking of Darjeeling, situated in the lush hills of the Himalayas it has too many beautiful to take in. It has always been my wish to visit Darjeeling, apart from the scenic beauty there we also got to visit a few monasteries and the famous Tiger Point.

You were just freely travelling with me in my backpack. ~~When~~ ~~And in the morning~~ We drove me to Darjeeling from Siliguri. I was just surprised to see the beautiful landscape especially the tea gardens and zig-zag road.

We stayed in ~~Hotel~~ Mount Himalayan <sup>Resort</sup>. It was a beautiful hotel. <sup>One</sup> interesting fact is that the hotel is situated in the top of Darjeeling. The hotel and the rooms were woods which is used for insulation. The two day trip was awesome. On the 1st day we went to the Tiger Point, early in the morning of the sunlight falling on the Kanchenjunga range was a sight to see and should be experience by everyone else. We went to monasteries and waterfalls. As you know I am a foodie lover I ate the largest momo in my life. It was even bigger than my fist. The whole vacation was not only to enjoy but I also get connected with the nature.

I bought some souvenirs too to keep memories. Darjeeling was more than I expected it to be and I hope to visit there again soon. There is a famous quote by Chief Seattle "Take only memories, leave only footprints". I think Darjeeling's memories will be always with me but for now I am getting ready for a new adventure to Yangtze.
