

Differences between living things and Non-Living things

Living things

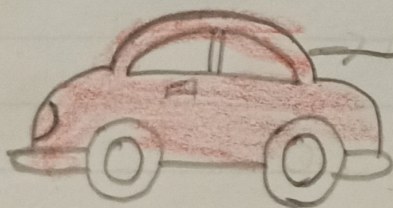

- ① Living things can move them selves, But non-living things cannot move.
- ② Living things can grow but non-living things cannot grow.
- ③ Living things need food and they feel but non-living things does not need food and they cannot feel.

Living things

Non-Living things

Non-Living things