

HOLIDAY'S HOME-WORK

Short Answer Questions

1. Write two ways in which pollination may occur in plants.

Ans. Pollination may occur ~~by~~ in plant by insects or animals.

2. Name three agents of pollination.

Ans. Water, insect and animals, are the three ~~agents~~ agents of pollination.

3. Give two features of flowers which favour pollination by insects.

Ans. i) These flowers are large with coloured petals, to attract insects.

ii) These contains nectar as food for insects.

4. Name two characteristics of flowers in which pollination occurs by wind?

Ans. i) They are usually small and are of dull colours.
ii) They produce a large quantities of pollen.