

Q15. What were the important demerits of the Modern system of government? [5].

Ans. i) Through middle schools which taught in English were opened, primary education was neglected.

- i. There was a decline in the indigenous system of education. Indian language school lost support and students and were forced to close.
- ii. Scientific and technical education was not taken care of.
- iii. No attention was paid to the education of women.

— X —