Intelligence Surpasses Physical Power /
Intelligence Greatest Power

Once there was a really beautiful forest named Hastlesston where all the animals lived in harmony and peace. Everything was just perfect, everyone was happy until Kaishiki the Devil lion arrived. He killed anyone he pleased to and anytime he wanted. He didn't kill for consumption, rather to show for fun and to show his superiority. The forest elders decided to go to the Kaishiki and short things ~~out~~ but they never returned. The area near the ~~lion~~ Kaishiki's den ^{turned} was lifeless and spooky. They were even afraid to leave their ~~hous~~ home houses and many died out of starvation. Everyone was frustrated and angry, some were also paranoid. They decided to take Kaishiki down and formed a small army consisting of the strong ones among them and the leaders of different species of animals. Luckily

The day before the fight ~~one~~ a ~~legendary~~ legendary turtle named Onaki was passing by and found the forest's situation and decided to help them. Onaki was taken by aliens and was a lab subject. The aliens gave Onaki some superpowers, a weapon ~~is~~ called ether gear which had ~~of~~ laser beams and would ~~to~~ amplify ~~one's~~ one's speed and strength. Their Army was named 'the Great Hastleston freedom warriors'. The army left for the Dem and declared a fight if Kaishiki wouldn't leave ~~at~~ their forest. Kaishiki came out and listening to them saying 'we'll take you down if you don't leave' he laughed very hard and replied 'you weaklings truly believe you can defeat me'. They started the fight, Onaki charged and threw a strong punch, but Kaishiki was barely affected. Turns out he had even more advanced gear. Everyone were killed except ~~in~~ Enory a little hedgehog who was spying from the bushes, Kinski Kaishiki realised ~~his~~ her presence and said 'come out you' but then it started raining and he went inside. A little ralleit ~~is~~ named Lee arrive to meet his relatives and found out the situation and then arrived Enory and explained everything in public discussion. Lee ~~is~~ was clever and found Kaishiki's weakness and said I'll take him down. Everyone laughed and mocked ~~the~~ Lee and all Lee said I'll prove y'all wrong and left ignoring his relatives warnings. The rain had stopped and Lee confronted Kaishiki. Kaishiki ran toward Lee but stopped as Lee showed no fright ^{Kaishiki} and was puzzled. Lee told Lee I've found another lion with rather gear ~~and~~ ^{who} seems to be not less strong than you, and might take your place. Listening to this Kaishiki said take me to him. Lee took him to a well and ~~said to~~ said he's in there ~~and~~ he doesn't seem to be affected ~~to~~ by water unlike you. Kaishiki jumps into the well to prove he's ~~strong~~ ~~and~~ no less than the well's lion (which was his own reflection) and he's stronger. Kaishiki doesn't know to swim and his rather gear stops working when in contact with water which leads him to drowning and die. Lee goes back ~~to the~~ and tells what happened. At first they said he lied and didn't even went to Kaishiki but later it was proved that Lee wasn't lying and Lee was finally acknowledged as the great forest hero. The forest went back to peace and all lived ~~happy ever after~~. happily in harmony ever after.
