

21.10.21 English Holiday Homework

1. look after
2. broke down
3. take off
4. to do
5. ~~to~~ talking
6. to try
7. to complain
8. She likes painting.
9. I can't bear listening to loud music.
10. He enjoys playing tennis.
11. Leila dreams of setting up her own business.
12. He is interested in emigrating to Canada.
13. Imperative
14. Indicative
15. Subjunctive
16. burnt

17. torn
18. Seeing
19. absolutely - intensifier
20. highly - intensifier
21. incredibly - intensifier
22. particularly - intensifier
23. so - intensifier
24. utterly - intensifier
25. fairly - mitigator
26. ~~pro~~ pretty - mitigator
27. rather - mitigator
28. slightly - mitigator

29. The skin horse explained the rabbit that being real wasn't about how a toy was made. If a toy is truly loved for a long time, it becomes real. This change doesn't happen at once and takes a long time. Toys that have sharp edges, break off easily or have mechanical / electrical parts that stop work or break down, do not go through this change. The skin horse further explains that by the time a toy becomes real, doesn't look beautiful. All the love makes it shabby and threadbare. But if it is worth as once a toy becomes real, it can't become unreal again.

30. When she grew up, all these things lost their beauty for the poet and the society also underwent changes and these things did not remain beautiful as they used to be in her childhood.

31. It is useless to investigate Macavity as he never leaves any evidence at the scene of crime. It always appears as if he was never present at the scene. Also, he always has spare ~~an~~ alibi to prove his innocence.

32. Macavity has looted food from the larder, rifled the jewel-case, consumed all the milk, etc. He has stifled Pekingese dogs, he has broken the green-house glass and destroyed the trellis. Whenever the foreign office has found a treaty that has gone astray, or the Admiralty has lost some plans or drawings, they believed that Macavity is the culprit.

33. The speaker's wife was upset with him as he couldn't reach home on time and she had to do shopping for home.

34. We make whales dumb by killing them. And if we kill the ~~one~~ whales they could not sing anymore, and we are doing this to satisfy human needs which is done for things like the whales fat, used in making soaps, lipstick and in many other things including lipstick and shoe polish. I think it is pointless these animals are being killed for things that we don't need.

35. The flash of turquoise in the pinal tree
a glimpse of very end of his tail.
A blue shadow will fall over you.
to shut those dark glowing eyes.

36. A girl was new to narrator's school and she was physically handicap and no one ~~was~~ wanted to become friends with her because she was handicap. The narrator first hesitated and later due to her kind and good behaviour of new girl, she became a good friend with her.

The narrator is a conscious person. The narrator is helpful and ~~a~~ impathetic. She is the testimony to friendship. She weathers every ~~storm~~ storm that comes on her way in order to help the new girl. She fought every battles alone to help the main character. She encouraged the new girl to be good version of an ~~introvert~~ extravert. She does everything to bring the new girl to mainstream of society and make her a part of current.

37. The story begins with _____ encounter between Roger, a teenage boy and Mrs. Luella Bates Washington Jones, an older women walking home from work late one night. Roger attempts to steal her purse, but because it is so heavy, and Mrs Jones is quite shout, he merely ends up breaking the strap instead. She kicks him and grabs him by the shirt, asking if he feels ashamed of himself. Roger admits that he does. Mrs Jones notices that his face is dirty and his hair is uncombed; she asks if there is anyone looking after him. He answers 'no', she drags him home with her, saying when she's ~~find~~ finished with him, he'll be sure never to forget he met her.

38. The young chimney sweeper's words show that he and his fellow sweep are in a harsh situation. They are the among most ~~was~~ vulnerable in society; young children who are orphaned or unwanted.

39. 105 - C Rajouri Garden
New Delhi

21st October 2021

The Editor
Hindustan Times
New Delhi

Sir,

Subject: Importance of following Covid-19 protocol after the lockdown.

Through the columns of your esteemed newspaper I would like to draw your attention towards the importance of following of Covid-19 protocols after lockdown. Everybody is aware of 2nd wave of Covid-19 wreaked havoc and caused a heart wrecking devastation because of people's negligence.

We are all aware how obeying the proper Covid-19 protocols has become imperative but unfortunately people in our society are not following rules & restrictions after lockdown. Though, we are able to see a perceptible decline in covid cases after mass vaccination in the state, but we are will be on brink of third wave, if protocol are not followed. People are neither wearing a mask nor using sanitizers, they are just flouting all protocols.

Through this letter I would request you take the ~~most~~ necessary step regarding the protocol of covid-19 after lockdown.

Yours truly
Priyam Mohapatra

40.

Discipline is the Key to success

by Priyam

Discipline is something that keeps each person in control. It motivates a person to progress in life and achieve success.

Everyone follow discipline in his/her life in different form. Besides, everyone has his own prospect of discipline. Some people consider it a part of their life and some don't. It is the guide that availability directs a person on the right path.

Without discipline, the life of a person will become dull and inactive. Also, a disciplined person can control and handle the situation of living in a sophisticated way than those who ~~don't~~ do not.

We need discipline in almost everywhere in life. So, it is best to practice discipline from the early stages of our life. Self-discipline means different things to different people. For students, its meaning is different for an employee its meaning is different, and for children its meaning is different.

Moreover, the meaning of discipline changes with the stages of life and priority. Not everyone can be disciplined because it requires a lot of hardwork & dedication.

In conclusion, we can say that discipline is one of the key elements of anyone's life. A person can only be successful if he/she strictly lives a healthy and disciplined life.