

Civics :

1 Describe the language policy of India? Why is the central government of India not compelling states to adopt Hindi as their official language?

A) The language policy of Indian Language policy is that our constitution does not give of national language to any language. Hindi was identified as official language. But Hindi is the mother tongue of only about 40%.