

H.W 29/6/21 We always need to store liquids in containers.
Why?

Ans We always need to store liquids in containers because if we will not keep it in container then it will flow, so we need to store liquids in containers.