

Animals	Adaptations
Cow	They have well developed incisors for biting grass
Giraffes	They have a long tall neck as they eat leaves of treetops.
Goats	They have well developed incisors and grinding teeth.
Dogs	They have good smelling sense for finding food
Lion	They have well-developed canines for tearing the flesh of other animals.
Tiger	They have well-developed canines and claws to catch their prey.
Eagle	They have sharp the claws and sharp beaks to kill other animals and eat it.
Bears	They can eat both plants and animals as they are omnivores.

Teacher's Signature