

1) Define the term Preamble?

Ans) The constitution begins with a preface or introduction called as the preamble.

2) India is a sovereign state. What ^{does it mean?} you mean by it?

Ans) "India is a sovereign state" means that India is now independent and it is no longer governed by any external authority and is its own master.

3) India is a socialist state. What does it mean?

Ans) "India is a socialist state" because, in India everyone is given equal opportunities to make use of the resources of the country. It aims to narrow the divide between the rich and the poor.

4) India is a secular state. What does it mean?

Ans) "India is a secular state" because there is no discrimination on the basis of religion. All religions are treated equally.

5) India is a Democratic state. What does it mean?

Ans) "India is a Democratic state", the people of India govern themselves through their elected representatives. Elections are conducted at regular intervals and the people can change the government, if they so desire, in the elections.

6) India is a Republic state. What does it mean?

Ans) "India is a Republic state" because The Indian Constitution proclaims that the head of state will be elected and not be a hereditary ruler. Thus we have a president who is elected and has a fixed term of office.

7) What do you mean by Liberty?

Ans) Liberty ← The constitution gives the citizens the freedom to express their opinion, follow their own path and also choose the occupation of their choice.