Wonders of Electricity

— Rajdeep

What do you mean by electricity? It is a thing that gives us comfort. No, it just not give comfort also it saves our time and helps us to do our work. It is one of the best inventions done by the scientist. It can be generated by water which is known as hydroelectricity and by wind through wind mills.

Electricity helps to run all machines and gadgets. For our better future we can use electrical power in our cars, bikes, buses etc.

We can also use solar panels to convert heat into electricity, but some times we can face problems.

I want to tell that if we will use electricity in proper manner it can help us very much.
