

12/5/21

English Worksheet

FIRST FLIGHT

(i) He could not fly about like his brother and sister because he got scared that he might fall from the cliff.

(ii) (c) Yawning it

(iv) (c) skim

(i) The seagull had been feeling hungry.

(ii) He ~~had~~ felt at the cliff a monstrous terror seized him.

~~(iii)~~

(iii) ~~he~~ (c) he started flying.

(iv) (b) his heart stood still

2) (i) The seagull ~~a~~ afraid that he would fall from the cliff and his wings would never support him to fly. He was afraid that he will ~~fall~~ down into the sea.

- (i) The seagull expresses his excitement by jumping and laughing and going to the edge of the mountain. When he was hungry he saw that his mother coming towards him so he excited much ~~am~~ and came to the brink of the ledge and tried to snatch food from her ~~mouth~~ mother ~~but~~ but ~~her~~ his mother keep it for as she could
- (ii) The young seagull was afraid to fly. Even after seeing his parents teaching ~~and~~ and helping his brothers and sisters to fly. he still could not gather enough courage to take his first flight. That is why his father were scolding and taunting him for his cowardness
- iv) The young seagull was very hungry. It was this hunger that ultimately compelled and encouraged him to fly. When he saw his mother tearing at a piece of the fish that lay at her feet his hunger intensified. Not being able to resist his hunger any longer he dived at the food in her beak.

At the moment his hunger overpowered his fear of the great expanse of sea beneath the cliff. Finally this plunge was followed by the seagull's first flight.

(v) Young seagull's parents are one of the most ideal parents. They initially scold him for showing unwanted cowardice. They also make him aware of the serious situation he can get into if he didn't fly and reach the other plateau. He would starve to death as there were no any food left in their former place. Still he was not ready to come. At this point, parents understood that he was waiting for their sympathy and sure they would bring food for him.

(vi) The young seagull felt very miserable on the ledge as he was alone and his family had already flown away. He was feeling very hungry and had nothing to eat. His condition was worsening.

because he could not ever dive for fish