

Eskimos

- The Inuit were the original inhabitants of Greenland.
- Their main occupation is fishing and hunting.
- They used boats called kayaks for fishing in the sea.
- They wear jackets with hoods lined with fur, called parkas.
- They wear long boots made of seal skin to keep their feet warm in the snow.
- Earlier, they used bows and harpoons to hunt. But now they use guns.
- Fish processing is the major industry of Greenland.