

1/10
06/09/21

Q. ~~write~~ what are pathogens.

Ans) A pathogen is defined as an organism causing disease to its host.

Q - Name two disease spread by bacteria and fungi each.

Ans) 1) bacteria - 1) cholera
2) tetanus

2) fungi - 1) ringworm
2) athlete's foot

Q - Name two airborne diseases?

Ans) flu and ~~cor~~ covid-19.

Q - What are acute diseases?

Ans) ~~Acute~~ Acute diseases come on rapidly and are accompanied by distinct symptoms that require urgent or short term care.

Q - Give difference between chronic and acute disease?

Ans) Acute diseases refer to medical conditions that occur suddenly and last for a shorter time period. Chronic diseases develop slowly in our body and may last for lifetime.