

We use the pronoun we in place of the name of more than one person including ourselves.

Examples:

Ravi and I are brothers. We go to the same school.

Seema and I are sisters. We are from Hyderabad.

We use the pronoun they in place of the name of more than one person. They is used to talk about others.

Examples:

Tony and Tina have a pet dog. They play with their dog.

Amit and Neha live near school. They walk to school every day.

3. Read the sentences. Choose the correct pronouns and fill in the blanks.

- C.W.0811.20.21
- (a) Kunal and I are best friends. we (They/We) go to school together.
- (b) Susan and Manmeet are healthy. They (They/We) eat apples every day.
- (c) Priya and Sonu are in the park. They (They/We) are playing football.
- (d) The children are in the library. They (They/We) are reading books.
- (e) Amit and I are neighbours. we (They/We) help each other.

Recap

Pronouns are words that are used in place of naming words. For example, Ravi is my cousin. He is from Hyderabad.