

Write the fundamental rights and duties in school.

In the school, the students find more secular and democratic environment. The students have rights to interact with their classmates of different religion and language. All the students feel equal and speak freely with their friends.