

Long Answer questions

Q9. What is a flower? Draw a typical flower and label its different parts.

Ans- Flower is usually the most beautiful and colour-ful part of a plant which serves as the reproductive organ.

Q8. State the location of the following of the flower:

(a) Sepals: The outermost whorl, made up of tiny green leaf-like structures called sepals.

(b) Petals: The second inner whorl, which is usually coloured or white but never green is petals.

(c) Anthers: The anther is on stamen which is small and found in the middle of a plant's flower.

(d) Stigma: The tube like structure arising from the ovary is known as stigma.

FLOWER

