① i) He could not fly about like his brothers and sister because....

the young seagull was afraid of flying as it was his first flight, whenever he see his siblings he tried of flying but he thought his wings will not support him and he will fall down and couldn't make his first flight.

ii) Caught his first herring.

iii) The word — in the extract means to move lightly just above the surface.

② i) The seagull had been feeling.... seagull had begin flying when no one helped it and he started flying. when he observed others flying and got motivated.

ii) When seagull attempted to dine at, he fell of the cliff. why?

Seagull attempted to dive at, he fell of the cliff because of a monstrous terrorized him and his heart stood still, but in the next minute he felt his wings spread ~~at~~ outwards and he started flying and got motivated.

iii) c. he started flying

iv) c. monstrous terror seized him.

② i) The young seagull was afraid to fly because he was frightened to see the sea around him and he ~~felt~~ also ~~felt~~ thought that his wings wouldn't support him to fly. He had not eaten anything since the previous night so he was frightened that he would fall down into the sea.

ii) He was very hungry as he hadn't eaten anything since the previous nightfall, so he was waiting eagerly, tapping the rock with his feet, trying to get nearer to her as his mother flew across. He became very happy for a moment.

iii) The young seagull was very hungry. When he saw his mother flying towards him with a piece of fish in her beak it made him fly slowly at start and because the sight of the food, "maddened" him, he wanted to have that piece of fish because of his hunger and ultimately this encouraged and compelled him to take his first flight.

iv) At first, his parents compelled and encouraged him, then they taunted him and also scolded him for his cowardice. They started threatening him to let him keep starve on the ledge and they called him 'swilly' also. They did all this for him because they wanted him to make his first flight.

v) The young seagull was afraid to fly because he thought that his wings wouldn't support him. He felt miserable as his parents (family) had flown away and he was alone on the ledge.

~~His~~

His condition became more worse when he couldn't even dive for fish.
