

11/11/21

Q) What are the important powers of President?

⇒ All governmental activities take place in the name of President.

→ All laws and major policy decisions of the govt. are issued in his name.

→ All major appointments are made in the name of President. These include the appointment of Chief Justice of India, Judges of Supreme Court, High Courts of States, the Governors of State, Election Commissioner, Ambassadors to other countries.

- Date _____
Page _____
- All International treaties and agreements are made in the name of President
 - The President is Supreme Commander of defence forces of India.

2) Differentiate between Political and Permanent executive.

Political Executive	Permanent Executive
→ Directly elected by the People	→ Not directly elected by the People
→ Have more power than Permanent Executive	→ Have less power than Political executive
→ Ans Take decisions & Answerable to People	→ Provide suggestions while decisions are taken by Political executive