The Indian Rivers

The Indian Rivers are consisting of many rivers found in India. There are rivers like Ganga, Saraswati, Yamuna, Kaveri, Mahanadi, Dayanadi and many more. They are all the rivers of India. One example we can take as Ganga. The Ganga which is the river that originates from the vast Himalaya. This river symbolises the Goddess Ganga. She was dropped on Lord Shiva's Hair and from that day she comes from there till the Earth. It is said that if any takes bath in this Holy river they will be free of all their sins.
