

H.W
26-09-2021

Homework

Re-write the answers in the notebook

1. The merchants sell all kind of expensive clothing and ornaments: Turbans of ~~turms~~ and tunics of vibrant colours, mirrors with panels of amber and daggers with handle of jade.
2. The vendors are weighing saffron, lentil and rice. They are weighing them because these items are sold by weight.
3. Pedlars are people who go from place to place selling things. In the poem, they are selling perfume and ivory dice.
4. The fruit men are selling Citrus (lemons), Pomegranates and plums.
5. The flower-girls are weaving the garlands for the bridegroom and the dead.

B. 1. The phrase 'richly displayed' describes the wares themselves rather than the way they are displayed. The wares look grand and exotic and thus, the poet says that they are richly displayed.

2. In the olden days pigeons were used as messengers. The bells to feed to their feet. Scared the other animals away and also alerted the receiver of the message. The usage blue pigeons signify that these pigeons belonged to the loyalty. The goldsmith are making gold bells for the Royal Pigeons.

3. The bazaars of Hyderabad as described in the poem are very different from the present-day markets. In these bazaars, people from all sections of the society gather ed. Sell their wares be it the rich merchants and goldsmith or the fruit seller and flower girls.

— X —