

write a paragraph it couldn't Be Done

It is said that it couldn't be done. He goes It is only about a negative thinking and the author tells us that we should stop this negative thinking and think for others and we also should think for our selves and everyones future. We should clear our doubting on others and belief them.

The thinking of ours should be expect the unexpected and listen to others whatever they say and follow them.