

HW

1) What were the differences between moderates and Radicals?

2) Why did Britishers decide to partition Bengal?

Answer

1) The moderates were the leaders who had faith in British and believed in submitting petition to have their grievances done.

The radicals were the leaders who believed in ~~strong~~ adopting strong measures to achieve freedom.

2) In 1905, to partitioned Bengal. Bengal was the stronghold of the Congress. It was said that the move was undertaken ~~to~~ for administrative convenience. This to weaken the power Congress.