

1) Under what circumstances The President can declare emergency in the country?

2) Explain judicial powers of the President?

Answer

1) If there is a famine or a deadlock, so he can declare emergency in these circumstances in our country.

2) Judicial powers are the President can reduce or commute death sentences to life imprisonment and receiving a petition of mercy.

