

imprisonment on receiving a petition of mercy.

HW

1) what are powers of Prime minister and council of ministers?

Answers

1-1A) Power of the prime minister

- On the recommendation of the prime minister, the president appoints the council of ministers.
- The prime minister advises the president when to summon dissolve and prorogue the parliament.
- The prime minister is the link between the parliament and the president and also between the council of ministers and the president.

Power of the Council of Ministers

- Minister introduce govt. bills in the parliament.
- The Union Budget is prepared by the Council.
- All laws passed in parliament are put into effect by the ministers.