

H.W-Dt-13.1.20

Date _____
Page _____

Q Early on winter mornings we see drops of water on parked cars and plants. why?

As - This is because of condensation. During the night when the heat air comes into contact with some cold surface, water vapor present in it condenses on the cold surface in the form of droplets. In early on winter mornings we see drops of water on parked cars and plants.