

CW
24.11.21

① why is it important to save water?

Ans- It is important to save water because we can survive 3 weeks without food but without water we can survive only three days and also over 60% of the human adult body's weight is water. and drinking water helps maintain the balance of body fluids also water keep our body organ healthy.