Q. What does the constitution say with regard to equality? Why do you think it is important for all people to be equal?

Ans - Our Constitution says that people should not be discriminated on the basis of religion, race, caste, region, gender, etc. Each and every citizen has the right to be treated equally. I think that it is important for all people to be equal because after that only our country will improve. India is known for its 'Unity in diversity'. So, to become the pride of our country we all have to treat every citizen equal and we should not discriminate anyone.

Q. What should we do in these situations :-

a) A friend begins to tease a classmate because he is poor.

Ans - We should guide and advise our friend not to do so and tell him the importance of unity and equality.

b) You are watching TV with your family and one of them makes fun of a community prejudicial comment about a particular religious community.

Ans - We should step him or ~~her~~<sup>her</sup> at that the same time. We should tell him or her not to repeat again as commenting a particular religious community without knowing everything about ~~them~~ it is prejudice.

c) Children ~~in~~ in your class refuse to share their food a particular person because they think she is dirty.

Ans - We should tell them not to judge someone by their outer appearance ~~by~~ but by their behaviour, their way of thinking and their ~~heart~~ talents.

d) Someone tells you a joke that makes fun of a community because of their accent.

Ans - We should tell him or her not to repeat the joke as <sup>due to their improper accent</sup> it is not actually a joke. It makes fun of someone else, which would hurt them. The joke is similar to discrimination.

e) Some boys make remarks about girls not being able to play games as well as them.

Ans - They should be told not to think and make remarks about girls like that, as girls are far stronger than them and have many responsibilities unlike the boys. The girls are capable enough to play games better than the boys.
