Homework

Q} Write a ~~pro~~ paragraph on "Indian village" in about 100 words.

Ans} Our India is called the country of villages. Eighty percent of India's population lives in villages. The life of the people of the villages is completely different from the people ~~villages~~ living in the cities. Village people are naive. They work hard ~~and~~ to grow grains to feed others. They have been living their life on the basis of many traditions since ~~many~~ centuries but in our village people are living their life with social relation system, brotherhood and cooperation

In villages we get to see

Indian culture.
