Q) Write a story on "The Honest woodcutter" in 100 words.

Ans long ago, there lived a woodcutter in a small village. He was sincere in his work and very honest. Every day, he set out into the nearby forest to cut trees. He brought the wood back into the village and sold them out to a merchant to earn his money. ~~the~~ He earned about enough to make a living, but he was very pleased with his simple lifestyle. One day, while cutting a tree near a river, his axe slipped out from his hand and fell into the river. Because the river was too deep he couldn't retrieve his axe and he only had one which now deep in the river. He became very frustrated, the only way he had able to earn his living was now gone! While he was camping on the ~~river~~^{river} bank a Gadder appeared in front of him and said with a sweet soft voice "What is the matter with you?" The woodcutter was astonished, with an amazed but sad voice he explained what happened to him and requested ~~to~~ ^{the} Goddess to retrieve it ~~for~~ for him. The Goddess went into the water ~~and~~ and came out with a silver axe and asked "Is this your axe?" The woodcutter gazed at it for a moment and said "NO"

So the Goddess again went into the water and emerged with a golden axe and asked "Is this ^{your} ~~you~~ axe?" The woodcutter again said "NO". Then the Goddess again asked "Are you sure you don't want this golden axe? ~~The~~ ~~axe~~ is very valuable you know" And then the woodcutter said not "No, it will ~~be~~ be able to cut any wood, so it will be ~~no~~ use to me." Then the Goddess gave ~~give~~ him a smile and then she again went into the water and pulled out his iron axe and asked "Is this your axe?"

~~Is this your axe?~~

The woodcutter ~~excite~~ excitedly said "Yes! This is my axe!

Thank you so much!" The Goddess was very impressed with the woodcutter that she gave him his iron axe and ~~the~~ the golden and silver axe as a reward for his honesty.

Moral - If you are honest then you will get a reward one ~~way~~ way or another.
