

Summary

The chimney sweeper is a poem by William Blake which tells about a small boy who is a sweeper. He had lost his mother at a very early age. He was also after that sold by his father to a master sweeper. He is a unfortunate boy who has become a victim of child labour. He is a very poor & blind boy. He once dreams that an angel will come and rescue him from the coffin.