

Q. The park near our house has a large lawn with grass growing in it. Can it be called grasslands? Why?

Ans. No, It didn't can be called grassland. Because, a grassland is a vast stretches of land covered with tall grasses and a few scattered trees.