Dear Ramesh,

I hope you and your parents are keeping well. It's been a long time since we last meet. Isn't it?

Well the reason for writing this letter is that I have found a new book it is called "Goose Bumps" and I read it. Well it is pretty amazing book. When I the first time I bought the book I thought it will be the same old story. But after reading first two pages I couldn't stop reading. I almost finished three chapters in a few hours. It's really a very good book.

Here, I am ending and I will tell you whole story about the book when you will come in my house and you can also tell what you did over this weekend. Regards to your parents and lots of love to you.

Yours lovingly,
Rudransh
