

Civis, HOME ASSIGNMENT

1. Under what circumstances the president can declare emergency in the country?

Ans \Rightarrow on the $&$ advice of prime minister and Council of ministers declares a emergency.

* If there is an internal crisis or civil war.

* If there is an external force threatening the sovereignty of the country

* If there is a breakdown in the constitutional machinery of a particular state - in such a ~~sa~~ situation the president will impose president's rule in the affected area.

* If there is a threat ~~to~~ to the financial stability of the country.

2. Explain judicial powers of the president.

Ans → The president can reduce or commute death sentence to life imprisonment on receiving a petition for mercy.