

H.W
13/5
2021

Reproduction in Plant

Review questions

Short Answer Questions

1) Write two ways which pollination may occur in plants.

A) → Self pollination - It is one of that occurs either within the same flower or between two flowers on the same plant.

→ Cross pollination - it occurs between two flowers on different plants of the same species.

2) Name the three agents of pollination.

A) → Insect

→ Wind

→ Water

3) Give two features of flower which favour pollination by insects!

A) → The flowers are large with colored petals to attract insects.

→ These ~~are~~ contain nectar as food for insects.

4) Name two characteristics of the flower in which pollination occurs by wind.

A) → They are usually small and are of dull colours.

→ They produce a large quantity of pollen.