

1. Why is the poem titled as Song of the Whale?

Ans:- The poem is titled as "Song of the Whale" because it describes the screams of a whale which is requesting us to stop hunting it.

2. Who is the speaker addressing in the poem? Why does he do that?

Ans:- The speaker is addressing the whale in the poem. He does that to draw the attention of the listeners towards the screaming of whale and its pain.

3. What feelings does the speaker want to convey through the poem?

Ans:- The poet wants to convey the feelings of carelessness and sadness. The lines "We would make you Dumb" inform us about it.

4. Does the speaker think there is hope yet for the whales?
How do we know?

Ans:- "Instead of life we choose", this line informs us that there is hope yet left for the whales. Because now we are not choosing life. But if once we choose life, then we can save the whales.