

1. State the message of the poem in one or two sentences.

Ans: The message of this poem is if a person wants to test the amount of courage he has, then he should try to quit something which he personally liked a lot. He shouldn't boast his grit unless and until he tests it.

2. Which words are repeated throughout the poem? What is its significance?

Ans: "How much grit do you think you've got?" are the words repeated throughout the poem. It signifies the question, a rigid question asked by the poet that how much courage do we have or if we do have courage or not.

3. There is no main character in the poem. Who do you think is talking and who is being addressed?

Ans: I think the mind is talking and it is addressing the body in this poem.

4. What is the tone of the poem?

Ans: This poem has a grave and rigid tone that promotes us to be simple and preserve our grit.