Dear Anna,

How have you been? It's been a while since I last met you. I hope my letter finds you in the best of your health.

I am writing this letter to let you know about my new book that my elder sister has gifted me, when she last came here to visit. I ~~felt~~ really excited when I received that book. That book was an animal Encyclopaedia. You already know that I love nature and animals very much, and when I received that book there were no bounds to my happiness. That book contains different categories and topics like terrestrial animals, land and water animals etc. It contains various concepts and interesting facts that I didn't know. As you know books are very important sources for gaining knowledge. I am also advising you to read your desired books for gaining knowledge.

I hope that I will be able to learn many new things from this book. It is a very interesting book. I miss you very much. Please, pay my regards to uncle and aunts. I am fine here. And please response when you receive the letter. OK, now I will stop.

Yours Lovingly,
Saswati
